This Week at CLS

Happy New Year! It's time for a new calendar!

January 3: Cougar basketball teams were back on the court!

January 6: Students and staff were back to learning after a wonderful CHRISTmas break!

January 8: CLS families supported our school at Chick-fil-A!

January 10: Second quarter ended! And meanwhile, down the hall...

Pre-K was reading, cooking and eating

Chicken Soup with Rice!

K learned about Simeon, Anna and the wise men praising God for the newborn Savior and singing "The Hokey Pokey" to practice left and right!

First graders compared life today and long ago and used Boomwhackers in Music!

Second graders learned how to look up passages in their Bibles and measured in inches, feet, yards, centimeters and meters!

Third graders read historical fiction about young Abe Lincoln!

Fourth graders worked on division with remainders!

Fifth graders read chapter books and described with adjectives.

Sixth grade focused on the Holy Spirit's work and fractions!

Grades 7/8 learned about the six types of energy--thermal, radiant nuclear, mechanical, electrical and sound and began a unit on composers and their music through the centuries!

In art, grades 5-8 created vision boards!

For your calendar: Please join us for History Comes to Life: Benjamin Franklin (an actor's portrayal of his life) on Monday, January 13 at 1:30 in the CLS gym!

And thanks for your support every day of this new year! May God bless the Christ Lutheran family in 2020!
