This Week at CLS

Cougar basketball practices and games are in full swing! After-school Chess Scholars continue! Grades 5-8 enjoyed a pre-concert talk by the Minnesota Orchestra Education Department in preparation for next week's field trip! Cornerstone students visited CLS on Friday for lots of fun and learning! Grades 5-8 helped sing God's praises in Hugo on Sunday! And meanwhile, down the hall...

Pre-K practiced letters with pumpkin spice playdough!

Kindergarteners learned about Hannah and Samuel and finished a math unit on tallying!

First graders listened to each student's state report!

Second graders studied Saul, painted with rubber bands and read stories about baby animals!

Grades 3/4 learned about Canada, our neighbor to the north!

Grade five looked at the sixth commandment, verbs and autobiographies!

Grade six studied the second article and read Wednesday Wars!

Grades 7/8 continued work on their STEM project, began studying forces and fluids and read stories and poems about travel!

Thank you for your support of this week of learning in the light of God's Word!
