Sports:

New Ulm Tournament:

The season ending New Ulm Tournament was held this past weekend. Both the girls and boys A teams came home with 1 win and 2 losses. Here is how the games went.

Friday afternoon the girls faced off against St. Paul's, New Ulm and lost a tough one, 50-17. However, they rallied against Resurrection, Rochester, winning 43-27. Their final game, the Consolation Championship, was against St. Martin from Watertown, South Dakota. Despite all efforts, they fell 36-24.

Friday evening, the boys started out on their tournament road against St. John from Redwood Falls. Like the girls team, they lost their first game (36-17) putting them in the consolation bracket. In their second game, they faced Mt. Olive, Mankato. They came away with the win, 25-17. They then played St. Martin for the right to play in the Consolation Championship. The team from Watertown, South Dakota was too much to handle, though. The Cougars lost 46-23.

Congratulations on your hard work all season, Cougars!

This Week at CLS

Another week of blessings including a Thursday Kindergarten round-up, a Friday 5-8 ski trip to Afton Alps and Sunday 5-8 singing plus the gift of dictionaries to all our third graders! (Thanks, Rotary Club!) And meanwhile, down the hall...

Pre-K acted out the story of "Jesus Calming the Storm" and sang "With Jesus in the Boat!"

K connected Jesus' saving love to "The Good Samaritan," remembering to "Serve one another in love!"

First graders learned about Presidents Washington and Lincoln and American symbols!

Second graders read letters made into stories and studied fish and reptiles and regrouping tens as hundreds!

Grades 3/4 discovered equivalent fractions and Picasso!

Fifth graders looked at The Third Article of the Apostles' Creed and subtracted fractions!

Grade six gave book reports and studied integers!

Grades 7/8 continued work on the periodic table, their reader's theater and Catechism research papers and listened to and learned about Beethoven!

Grades 5-8 created beautiful silhouette art!

Thank you for your wonderful support of Christian education at CLS!
